Choosing Music for the Presbyterian Church in the 21st Century by

Dr. Daniel Krymkowski

Born and raised in the Milwaukee area, Dan Krymkowski earned B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Wisconsin-Madison during the 1980s. From 1991 until his retirement in 2022, he was Professor of Sociology at UVM, where his work focused on social inequality. He has published some refereed articles in professional journals as well as a book in 2023: The Color of Culture: African American Underrepresentation in the Fine Arts and Outdoor Recreation. Music in a variety of forms has been an important part of his life since childhood: he has sung in many choirs and has studied music theory, organ, piano, piano accordion, and voice. Dan has been the organist at FPC Barre since 2019, a member of the church since 2020, a member of Session since 2021, the choir director since 2023, and is currently serving on its Pastoral Nominating Committee. Dan's wife of 43 years is Rebecca Mueller, who is the director of the Richmond Free Library. Their daughter, Anastasia, is an actuary in Boston, and their son, Aaron, is an environmental scientist who works for the State of Vermont.
